NEW YORK, Jan. 6. The sheek to TODAY'S PRICES ON Wall Street Monday afternoon when the gas decision was given out, and the continued liquidation incident to it on Tuesday, clarified the atmosphere very much, shaking out many thousands of margined accounts and making the st mation much better. Moreover, it cregted a short interest. But there are has not as yet affected the market. The loss incident to the gas decision is Variously estimated between $30,000,000 C., M. & St. P., com. 148 149 1475 1489 and $50,000,000. Much credit is given to H. H. Rogers for his discernment in advising the Brooklyn Union Gas Company to accept the 80-cent gas law, Denv. & R. G. com., 33% 38% 38% 38% pany to accept the 80-cent gas law, without opposition, thereby saving the corporation $1,500,000 expenses, while at the same time it was in a position to take advantage of a reverse decision in the event of the court holding with the Consolidated Gas Company's pleas. It was a shrewd Standard Oil move.

W. C. Brown, N. Y. C. Presdent.

One of the most important bits of news of the day was the election of W. C. Brown to the presidency of the New York Central. It was stated some days ago that Mr. Harriman favored

Mr. Brown. It is now reported, however, that the successful candidate had Norfolk & Western. 85½ 88% 85% 85% 86% Norfolk & Western. 85½ 88% 85% 86% Norfolk & Pacific.....140% 141% 140½ 140%

If New York Central made its sharp gain on the prospect of Harriman naming the president, it should be slated for a reaction on the success of the great Vanderbilt system, although the selection is in the interest of Vanderbilt conservatism.

Supply and Demand Well Balanced—Fluctuations Are Slight.

Almost a normal market was reached oday, when, with supply and demand ew fluctuations in quotations on the various lines of country produce offered. In the vegetable market, signs of re turning normal conditions were man! fested at the outset, wit! the reduction of from 50 cents to $1 per crate on various grades of Florida lettuce. This is practically a restoration of the old mand in the vegetable market is so closely adjusted that it is believed the first return of cold weather will send prices soaring in every class.
